PP FAMILY NEWS

Last Sunday, over 60 members of the church received certificates of completion from the dean of Singapore International Bible Institute (SIBI), Dr. Charles Cook. [Left: sister Karen and brother John receiving their certificate]

Our camp committee will be distributing the June camp kit today in the lobby. If you did not pick up your camp tee last Sunday, be sure to get yours also.

Today, we will enjoy the preaching of our American brethren. Brother Charles Cook will exhort the congregation in the morning. Brother Jeryl Snider will probably be giving his last sermon at PP in the evening. Join us in prayerfulness that he may continue to be a blessing to us by securing another job in Singapore.

acquainted with them at the church camp. Brother Tom will work with brother Charles in the SIBI programme.

Specially for youths this Wednesday at 7:30pm, elder Adrian resumes the '5 Love Languages' series on the subject of "falling in love". Dinner provided from 6pm onwards. Come with the entire family and bring a friend.

Members who are attending the a cappella singing next Sunday are reminded to place your lunch orders with sister Betty at the lobby today.

Welcome: We continue to enjoy many visitors, including brethren from other congregations and aboard. Newcomers brothers Martin and Morton both live along Pasir Panjang Road.

From brother Ken Davidson: "I wish to express my thankfulness to the congregation here and my gratefulness to God for your teaching and encouragement during my stay in Singapore. Your fellowship was a spiritual refreshment for me."

Tom, Nancy, Jaydon and Shayla Goracke are finally here in Singapore! They are putting up with the Winston Chongs before moving to their apartment at the nearby Pandan Gardens. All of us will be able to get better Elder Adrian wishes to thank all members who uplifted him in prayerfulness during his cancer treatment this past week. As the result of the radioactive treatment, he will not be able to do his usual round of hand-shaking today.

Our minister and sister Nat are away this weekend to visit their daughter, sister June in Hongkong and worship with the church at Wanchai.
