There are few things as powerful as a father's word.

YOU'RE WELCOME FOR A TRANSFORMATIONAL TIME

Let me read to you 10 uniquely Singaporean dad-like traits we've found, based on some highly interesting water-cooler talks:

1. You have a radar that can detect when Selena Tan (aka Dim Sum Dollies) is in "adas" style.
2. You have a WhatsApp network with the most 'up-to-date' news that you waste no time sending to your family group chat.
3. You're the designated pest-killer of the family and know where all the Baygon/Once-For-All insect killer/lizard traps are kept.
4. You find yourself switching off all the electrical appliances and air-con units at night because "electricity is expensive".
5. You hide money in various nooks and crannies of your clothes (yes, fanny packs and cargo pants are still in your wardrobe).
6. Your most natural state will most often be in front of the TV in the evenings, shirtless and snoring away, with [insert favourite channel] playing in the background.
7. You're the designated driver for the kiddos after your "tiger mom" wife signs them up for enrichment and tuition classes.
8. You preach tough love - especially when it comes to learning life skills like cycling and swimming.
9. You're the rubbish bin of the family - especially when your kids are hungry and over order at the hawker centre.
10. Your waistline is expanding as your family expands.

Does this list remind you of your dad? What about a friend who's a dad? Or... horror of horrors, are YOU a dad and nodding as you go through the points?
