Sunday Morning Worship

The Soil of Shema | 22 January 2023

Parents with more than one child know firsthand a universal truth: no two people are the same. One gobbles up their broccoli without being asked, another avoids it like the plague. One barely needs to be told to clean their room, while another needs direct supervision and frequent reminding.

Jesus tells us in the famous Parable of the Sower that His children are also of many kinds. Some listen readily, and others not so much. Before we assume that we're automatically the good soil because we're baptised believers, let's pause for a moment and try to shema with fresh ears. What might God be trying to say to His children today?

New Worship Series!

Who is God?

For some of us, God is a kind, loving figure who accepts us unconditionally. But for others, God is an angry deity of whom we are afraid.

For the ancient people of God, learning to know God and behold Him was a journey: the same God who revealed Himself in the burning bush was the God who rescued them from slavery in Egypt through the Ten Plagues, and later parted the chaotic waters of the Red Sea.

The God known as YHWH is all-powerful. He is intense, and yet intimate. He is terrifying, and yet tender. He reveals Himself to His people, and yet, there's so much more! If we are going to be His people, we need to shema who YHWH is.

So who is God? As we come to the mountain of God, let us ask YHWH to show us who He is. Let us ask YHWH to show us His glory.

PP Phototaking

As we begin 2023 by shema-ing God's voice about who He wants us to be, we also want to show the world that we are God's people and we delight in being that way!

To make this happen, brothers Shawn Li and Larry Lim are working to curate an "image library" of life at PPCOC that shows our joy in worship, our love for one another, and our hope in the Lord Jesus. These images will be used on our website and social media platforms.

Brother Larry will be moving around the worship hall to take photographs during worship on 22 and 29 January. When he comes around, you can either wave and smile for the camera when it's appropriate, or simply continue worshipping normally.

If you do not wish to have your picture taken and used for these public purposes, we invite you to sit towards the left side of the worship hall. You can also let brother Larry know if he approaches you.
