Sunday Morning Worship

Compassionate | 1 October 2023

The Bible repeatedly portrays God as compassionate. He is described as "the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness" (Exodus 34:6).

God's compassion is often linked to His forgiveness and willingness to show mercy to those who repent. In the New Testament, Jesus exemplified compassion throughout His earthly ministry. He healed the sick, fed the hungry, and showed love to the outcasts and marginalized. His parables, like the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), highlight the importance of loving our neighbors and extending compassion to those in need.

Compassion is not merely a feeling but a call to action. The Bible encourages believers to not only feel empathy but to translate it into acts of love, kindness, and mercy towards others, reflecting God's compassionate nature. As we become the new people of God, may we learn to be the compassionate hands and feet of Jesus in this world.
