Sunday Morning Worship

59th Anniversary | 29 October 2023

Today, PPCOC celebrates 59 years of experiencing God's eternal faithfulness! Much has happened since the days of Queenstown, Tanglin Halt, YWCA and when 347 Pasir Panjang Road was just a single bungalow.

As we reflect on and practice gratitude for the past, we do so with the awareness that it has been chiefly a spiritual journey of faith. Locations, ministries, outreach and evangelism efforts are all testaments to how God's Spirit has been at work to build His kingdom. And we are honoured to be a part of His great work.

This year, we have spent lots of time discerning where God will lead us next. We will affirm as one united family of God who God has revealed Himself to be and who we are called to be. Is it a high and lofty calling to be transformed into images of God? Yes. Is this calling worth pursuing? We believe it is.

Condolences: Family of John Foo

Brother John Foo (brother of sisters Ai Choo and Stella and brother Thomas Foo) passed on early on the morning of Wednesday, 25 October. The funeral was held on Friday, 27th October.

Brother John committed his life to Jesus 2 years ago at a private baptism, but has not attended services as he was admitted to a nursing home shortly after. His wife is Buddhist, but wanted him to have a Christian funeral.

May God the Father of all mercies grant comfort to the grieving family.

Worship Series

We've come to the end of our worship series of "A New People"! It has been a powerful season of naming and celebrating the values that we the family of God at PP have discerned of who God is and how He calls us to imitate Him. We will explore each of these values more deeply over the next year, starting with "Image Makers" on 26th November.

Over the next three Sundays, brothers Isaac Tay, Chew Chong Lin and Larry Lim will speak to us on the fruit of the Spirit, a series we're continuing from June and July by church leaders.
