Sunday Morning Worship

Revealed In Work | 28 January 2024

“Aiyah, who like working one? Don’t like, also have to work right? I don’t like work lah, only like money!” This opinion was uttered by a person working in Singapore (as you can tell from the language), and it is perhaps quite accurate to how most of us feel about work. Work is a means to an end; we tolerate work so that we can enjoy what it can get us - money, fulfillment, prestige, connections, early retirement, and so forth.

But what if work was more than that? What if work could be a good and beautiful thing because that is where God reveals Himself? And if He really does show up at work, how might that awareness transform our feelings towards our work?

Values Coasters

Our individual values coasters have arrived! If you have pre-ordered your coasters, you may collect them from sister Liesl at the welcome table outside the auditorium.

If you did not pre-order them but wish to buy a set, you may also approach sister Liesl. These coasters will make a great conversation starter during CNY celebrations!

Introducing: Eric, Jane and Johanna Ang

We are delighted to officially welcome the Ang family to our church family! They made a commitment to plant their roots with our congregation last Sunday, and we are excited to see how God will work through them!

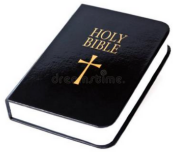

From brother Eric: “We are indeed grateful and thankful to be part of PPCOC family. Since we started attending PPCOC’s Sunday Service last August, we have been inspired by many good examples of PPCOC members passing down their convictions and safeguarding their faith from generations to generations. Looking forward to our spiritual journey together & alongside with everyone in PPCOC.”
