Suffering Is Personal | 17 March 2024

One of the great mysteries of the Christian faith is why Jesus chose Judas to be one of His disciples. In His omniscience, surely our Lord knew that this one would betray Him and set in motion the most horrible suffering known to mankind. And not only that, but all twelve of His disciples would fail Him in one way or another when He needed them most.

Yet Jesus allowed Himself to suffer all that. The deepest wounds come not from enemies but from our closest friends - those who aren't supposed to wound us. And still, Jesus allowed Himself to endure that suffering, so that when we face betrayals and backstabbing, we know we have a divine Friend who suffers alongside us.

Who Is Jesus And Is He God?

Baptism of sister Katelyn Tan

During the Youth Beach Huddle on Wednesday, 13 March, Katelyn Tan was baptised into the Lord Jesus Christ, surrounded by family members and the Youth group. Praise the Lord for another soul added to the kingdom of God!

Katelyn chose to be baptised after encouragement from her family, and then engaged in a series of conversations and Bible studies with Youth minister John Lim and a core group of friends.

We pray that Katelyn's journey of faith and discipleship will be an inspiration and encouragement to many!

Return to 347: A Glimpse into the Work

Exciting things are happening at 347 Pasir Panjang Road! Prior to our return, several ministry groups such as GEMS, Deaf, and the Chinese congregation have been busy cleaning, testing and preparing their rooms and facilities. We thank God for brethren who so willingly spread tables for others!

For the Culinary Interest Group, table-spreading was literal! They prepared the rooftop kitchen area and tested the various cooking appliances. By the looks of it, it's ready for our move!

Return to 347: Week of Prayer and Fasting

On 31 March 2024, the PPCOC family will move into its new home at 347 Pasir Panjang Road. It marks the end of our two-year “wandering”, both in the physical and the spiritual sense.

Throughout history, God’s people have marked significant occasions with a season of prayer and fasting. This was an opportunity for the entire community to be united in seeking God’s Spirit, direction, guidance and blessing. Far from “earning” God’s blessing by works-righteousness, prayer and fasting align the hearts of God’s people to God’s will.

For the week of 25-30 March, we invite PPCOC members to engage in special habits of prayer and fasting.

- We will send daily prayer prompts at 3:47pm each day, with a prompt to pray around one of our church values.
- We invite all members to “fast” on Friday. This may be from food for one meal (e.g. lunch or dinner) or a full day, depending on your ability. It may also be a fast from certain hobbies or habits, social media or screens, or anything else that you can give up for a day to spend time with God.
- In addition to Friday, you may choose to fast from those things for a longer period of time, e.g. doing a three-day fast from Wednesday to Friday.

We believe that this will be a powerful experience as we align our hearts together towards God and His will for us!
