Sunday Morning Worship

Waiting Tables | 12 May 2024

If you have ever worked as a waiter or waitress, you know it's an incredibly demanding job. Some customers can be very pleasant while others can be impatient and entitled. The pay is not always good, the hours are long and you're always on your feet. And still, it is your job to be gracious, compassionate and restorative to all.

In the book of Acts, soon after the birth of the early church, one of the first and most important roles that had to be filled was that of the waiter. Men who were full of the Holy Spirit were appointed - to go and serve tables. Far from a humble and lowly position, God seems to value and honour those who take on such roles of service. Perhaps we should too.

A Message from sisters Hedy and Michelle

“We would like to thank everyone who prayed for William and our family while he was hospitalised. We would also like to thank everyone who came to the wake and the funeral to pay their respects and to offer condolences and comfort.

We would like to ask for privacy during this difficult time. Please do not ask us for details about William’s hospitalisation. If you have a special memory of William you would like to share with us, please feel free to do so.”

HAPPY Mother's Day

We celebrate all mothers who are God's gift to us! We thank you for revealing the unconditional and sacrificial love of our Lord, for faithfully spreading Tables for us through all of life's circumstances, and for holding us with arms of compassion and charity.
