Sunday Morning Worship

Who's At The Table? | 19 May 2024

“Why is THAT PERSON here?!” It’s a thought that flashes through the minds of students when the unpopular kid sits within five seats of their “in” group. Or when the unwashed, unkempt homeless person walks into a fancy restaurant. For the people already there, there is revulsion. “They’re not one of us. They don’t belong in this space.”

Christians who think this way - that some people don’t deserve to worship with us or serve on the same team with us - will quickly be frustrated with God. Because God always seems to be putting different people, even arch-enemies, together on the same team. It’s not our responsibility to vet God’s guest list; it’s our privilege to welcome every single guest.

Leadership Retreat

Last week, our leaders attended a retreat facilitated by brother Jay Jarboe from MRN. It was a refreshing time of spiritual formation, deep conversations, active listening, and sharing dreams and visions for where we discern God is leading our church family. Please continue to pray for our church leaders as we journey together!

John and Sean: Worship Leader Institute

From 30 May to 11 June, brothers John Lim and Sean Yu will be travelling to Cookeville, Tennessee, USA for the annual Worship Leader Institute (WLI). Run by Keith Lancaster and The Acappella Company, it is a “boot camp” for worship leaders to be equipped with the skills to lead their churches in vibrant a cappella singing.

This is John’s third time attending the Institute and his first time serving as a coach, where he will train other worship leaders from across the US. Sean is a first-time attendee and the recipient of the WLI scholarship for international students.

We pray for God to bless this time of equipping, and we look forward to them returning to Singapore to bless PPCOC and the region with their gifts and talents!

As John will be overseas during this period, please contact him regarding any matters by Tuesday, 21 May. During his absence, please contact Lead Minister Irvin.

#Throwback to Culinary Interest Group Event

On 27 April, our Culinary IG had a great cooking demo by chef Adrian Lee. Over 30 members showed up to learn how to make his signature dish! Elder Tee Liang even came to share his signature beef stew. More wonderful fellowship to come, so stay tuned!
