Sunday Morning Worship

Whose Table Is This? | 2 June 2024

Have you ever encountered that awkward moment when you're at a meal with someone and both of you offer to pay, and then you both go back and forth about who paid last time and whose turn it is now? Or what about that other awkward moment when your house guest starts washing the dishes?

There seems to be something deep inside us that wants to be generous, even when we're not "the host". We want to take ownership of a task so that others can relax and have a good time. In other words, we can be Table-Spreaders even when it's not our Table to begin with.

The biblical story contains many instances of God's people in dire circumstances who somehow still find a way to be generous and to bless. From jail cells to financial impoverishment, Table-Spreading has no limits.
