Generosity Is Table-Spreading | 1 September 2024

Have you ever heard any of these sayings? “When I’m old enough, then I’ll serve God!” “When I’ve made this amount of money, then I’ll be generous to my neighbour!” “When my kids graduate from school, then I’ll have more time for Jesus!”

It seems common in Christian circles to think thoughts like this. And while these may be important considerations, deep down, aren’t they just different ways of saying “God can’t use me now, he’s going to have to wait for me to be ready for him”?

If we are truly people who live by God’s Word, we live on God’s schedule and calling, not ours. We don’t decide when it’s convenient for us to be generous; we have become generous people because we have tasted of the rich and abundant Table of Jesus.

PPCOC Welcome Team: Recruiting Smiles!

Here at PP, we want to be a church family that welcomes many to the table of Jesus. When someone new sets foot into our community, we want them to feel welcomed into the presence of God, to be met by a smiling face and a warm handshake. This would be our team of ushers and ‘bouncers’ who help to welcome people into our worship space and ensure everything is orderly.

Last Sunday, we combined these teams into what we call our “Welcome Team” where they were trained on best practices to be welcoming, hospitable and generous. We are thankful for those who have been a part of this training already, and we are prayerful for the Spirit to move our church family members to join us.

If you have a welcoming spirit and enjoy making visitors and returning members here at PP feel at home, we invite you to speak with our Ministry Executive sister Josephine Seah, or to drop us an email at hello@ppcoc.org.

60th Anniversary

PPCOC has been through quite a journey over the last 60 years!

As we look at our history, it is more than just a string of random, accidental events. We believe our journey has been touched and made holy by a God who is actively redeeming and transforming us for His purposes. Where exactly He is leading us is a glorious and exciting mystery that He invites us to discover for ourselves!

At the same time, we discern the need for a time of confession. What barriers remain in us that would hinder God's work in us moving forward? Let us lay ourselves at the feet of Jesus, brokenness and imperfections and all, so that He can break our chains, forgive our transgressions, and free us for something far greater.

Our Organising Committee led by brother Isaac Tay invites all members of PPCOC to share reflections and stories celebrating how God has worked in this church over the past 60 years. These stories will be compiled and published for all to read and be inspired by what God has done here.

We love to gather your reflections and stories that celebrates how God has worked in PPCOC over the past 60 years.

Your sharing will be published in our Focus in October :)

- Everyone is invited to contribute! Children too!
- The intent is to celebrate God's work through stories – so let us edify and encourage one another through our sharing!

Here's some topics we like you to contribute to

1. Celebrating your best memories in PPCOC
2. Thanksgiving for how God has worked in your life
3. One prayer or hope for PPCOC in the next 10 years

Format wise - anything in printed form!

- For written submission – There's no hard word limit, but don't worry it need not be lengthy.
- If you don't wish to write, a drawing/ sketch is good too!

How to submit?

Please email your stories to ppcoc60@gmail.com by 15 September!

Josephine on Leave

Our Ministry Executive, sister Josephine Seah, will be on leave from 5-10 September. We seek your support as she honours this season of Sabbath to rest and refuel for the upcoming season of ministry ahead. If you have any questions or queries during Josephine's leave, please contact Lead Minister Irvin.
