Sunday Morning Worship

Seeing The Spirit | 26 January 2025

As Singaporeans, we tend to appreciate having a plan. We feel secure when we know the program, the agenda, the itinerary, and the roadmap for our activities. There's satisfaction in maximising every moment available to us, and when life works like clockwork.

But what happens when we don't have that plan? Spiritually speaking, how do we respond to a God whose ways are higher than our ways, whose plans seldom correspond to our own, and even conflict with them?

While we might tend towards frustration, anger, and even doubt God's goodness, may we learn to see with eyes of faith that God is in fact working for our good. May we be open to and in awe of the Spirit's movement, even when it goes beyond our understanding.
