Sunday Morning Worship

Now I See | 9 February 2025

“Lifelong learning” is a buzz-phrase in our society today. We’re encouraged to “upskill”, attend trainings and conferences, look for new opportunities - and sometimes, it’s simply exhausting! When will it ever end? Is there even a point to learning something new if it’s just going to get outdated?

Scripture can feel like that. We like to think we’ve got our Bibles figured out, but the truth is that there are some parts that we still don’t “get”. God and His ways can still seem a mystery even to a Christian of many years. To a people who value certainty and understanding, that is unsettling!

But we truly believe that God is infinite, perhaps there is grace in admitting we don’t - and cannot - ever fully understand God. Being in relationship with God truly is a journey of “lifelong learning”.

FAMILY FEAST! FEBRUARY 9

12:30-2:00pm

Celebrate the season with us after our worship service!

SEE YOU THERE!

The graphic features four photographs: three women standing behind a buffet table, a group of people serving themselves at a buffet, a woman serving a child at a buffet, and a group of men sitting at a table. The text is overlaid on a dark background with a white border.

For today's Family Feast, food is served in the Annex (202-203) and the Carpark! Please note that the Annex is reserved for seniors and families with young children only. All other members are invited to the MPH to enjoy moving about and mingling with fellow brothers and sisters over lunch!

Journal of Christian Studies: PP Represented

The Journal of Christian Studies, an academic journal for Churches of Christ, recently published an article by our very own Kyle Hooper! This is a significant milestone as these articles represent some of the finest internationally recognised scholarship among Churches of Christ. Notably, our camp speaker, Dr Evertt Huffard, was also featured in this edition.

We congratulate Kyle for his accomplishment and pray that PPCOC continues to be a beacon of excellence and inspiration for churches around the world!

Missions Connection: By John Then

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Missions Connection started in February 2024, and so far, we have had three successful meetings bringing like-minded believers together to hear stories from missionaries and church planters in other parts of the world.

I'm excited to share that we will be hosting another Missions Connection event on Monday, 10 February. This will be a wonderful opportunity for us to come together, learn, and celebrate the work God is doing in various communities.

Our focus will be on sharing experiences, building relationships, and understanding different cultures while honouring the core principles of our faith. We believe that by fostering connections and learning from one another, we can strengthen our mission to spread God's love and compassion.

We warmly invite everyone to join us in this meaningful gathering. If interested, please send me an email at gtnations@gmail.com.

Let's come together with open hearts and minds, and explore how we can collectively support and uplift our brothers and sisters across the globe.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Blessings,
John Then
