Sunday Morning Worship

The Heart of A Servant | 16 February 2025

Suppose you're catching a flight from Changi Airport that leaves at 3pm. Would you arrive at 3pm itself? Of course not! We arrive hours in advance to ensure everything is in order, with our passports and documents prepared and luggage triple-checked. Only then can we sit back, relax, and enjoy the journey.

As a church, we're waiting for the Father to lead us through His values to His vision for us. It's going to be a wonderful destination, but we have to be ready to receive His directions. We pack our bags and get ready by asking Jesus for His heart of service and shepherding, and we seek the Spirit to set us apart for this journey.

So that when that boarding gate opens, we'll be right there, ready to go.

A Message from our Shepherds

Our church family is entering a season of change and renewal. This November, our leaders—Elders, Deacons, Board, and Trustees—will complete their three-year term, and we have the sacred opportunity to seek God's guidance as we discern who will lead us in the years ahead. As members of PP Church, we are invited to listen to the Holy Spirit, prayerfully considering those whom God is calling to serve.

In recent years, our fellowship has welcomed new and transferred members who may not yet be familiar with our leadership election process. In light of this, our leaders feel it is good and right to turn to Scripture, allowing God's Word to shape our understanding.

To guide us in this journey, our three ministers have prepared a series of lessons that will help us reflect on biblical principles for leadership. Together, we will affirm and support brothers who are full of the Holy Spirit, willing and able to serve in this new season.

Let us approach this time with open hearts—giving careful attention to these lessons, searching the Scriptures with diligence, asking questions, and engaging in conversations with grace and unity. May we seek God's will together as we prayerfully discern the future leadership of PP Church.
