Sunday Morning Worship

A Heart That Is Set Apart | 23 February 2025

When Singaporean men enlist for National Service, they receive multiple sets of uniform and boots. While most of them are used for everyday tasks and training, recruits are instructed to set aside one set considered their “smartest” - the pristine one reserved for parades, free of mud and scuff marks, polished and washed to the highest standard.

Just as we set things apart for special purposes, God sets us apart for special purposes. No single Christian is called to do everything, but each of us is uniquely gifted to do something. As we prepare to receive God’s vision for our church, we want to embrace our unique strengths and limitations and so be most faithful to what God has in store for us.

When was the last time you lost yourself in the wonder of nature? Or when you felt that God literally breathed His life into the surrounding around you and that you glimpsed a world formed in His image? Has anything God made caused your heart and mind to be stilled and quiet, ready to shema and listen to His voice?

Here we have an opportunity for you to rediscover the awe and wonder of God in nature! Brother Chen Yi and sister Eunice invite you to Nature Outing, a time to step away from the busyness of life to experience the peaceful rhythms of nature, reflect on His goodness, and enjoy the world He has crafted for us. This time is about more than just being outdoors – it's about reconnecting with God, one another, and the wonder of creation.
