Sunday Morning Worship

The Heart of a Shepherd | 2 March 2025

We often hear that “the church is not an organisation”. This is used to express that the way the church works is unlike any corporate organisation or company, even in ways that directly go against common corporate wisdom. Few places reveal this more than in leadership.

Instead of CEOs and presidents, the “pinnacle” of church leadership are the Elders, also called Shepherds. However, the Elders are not the only “Shepherds” of the church. Every single Christian is called to be a shepherd of other Christians, sharing the honour and responsibility to love, care for, and protect our fellow brothers and sisters. For in doing so, we all imitate our Lord Jesus.

When was the last time you lost yourself in the wonder of nature? Or when you felt that God literally breathed His life into the surrounding around you and that you glimpsed a world formed in His image? Has anything God made caused your heart and mind to be stilled and quiet, ready to shema and listen to His voice?

Here we have an opportunity for you to rediscover the awe and wonder of God in nature! Brother Chen Yi and sister Eunice invite you to Nature Outing, a time to step away from the busyness of life to experience the peaceful rhythms of nature, reflect on His goodness, and enjoy the world He has crafted for us. This time is about more than just being outdoors – it's about reconnecting with God, one another, and the wonder of creation.

Welcome Sister Claire!

We rejoice over the baptism of our newest sister in Christ, sister Claire Andrada! She was immersed into Christ by our Lead Minister Irvin Wan after the worship service on Sunday, 23 February.

The church surrounded her and affirmed our commitment to be her family and support her on her journey with Christ. May God's Spirit fill sister Claire with power and grace!
