Sunday Morning Worship

Rising With The Spirit | 4 May 2025

Have you ever felt afraid or insecure? In a world with so many wars, conflicts, and economic uncertainties, you've probably wished to just go away from it all. Wouldn't it be great if we could fly off to a different planet and be free of all this unrest?

Jesus' disciples felt that way after their Master had been crucified. They were full of fear, hiding behind a locked door to try and keep their enemies from finding them. Like cowards.

Then Jesus shows up—no locked door can stand against the Resurrected Christ! He speaks peace over their fear and breathes His Spirit into them, transforming their fear into boldness. What if the Spirit can do the same for you, and transform your fear into boldness?

Recap: Visit to Tan Tock Seng Hospital

On 19 April, sixteen members from PPCOC joined together for a spiritual outreach at Tan Tock Seng Hospital. Organised by Mee Geok, the group visited with patients, sharing gifts, prayers, songs of praise, and compassionate conversation.

The team was able to connect with nearly 100 patients, many of whom were elderly and appreciated the opportunity to share about themselves and their medical journeys. Through these meaningful interactions, 27 patients welcomed prayer for their concerns and difficulties. Most encouragingly, one patient expressed interest in learning more about the gospel and baptism.

"It's a good experience," shared Tony, who noted how well-organized the outreach was, allowing for a smooth and successful visitation. Lee Hock described how the group was "bonded as one by the Spirit of Christ," working together to bring cheer to those in need.

This hospital visitation ministry continues to open doors for outreach, addressing both physical health needs and spiritual well-being. The PPCOC team extends thanks to all participants and especially to Mee Geok for coordinating this blessed opportunity to serve in Christ's name.
