Sunday Morning Worship

Rising In Rest | 18 May 2025

We live in a workaholic society. There's just no denying it - Singapore ranks near the top of global lists such as "Countries with the most stress/least sleep/longest working hours." We even bring our work laptops or school homework on holiday!

And we think that's how Jesus works too. Want to be a Christian? Well, get ready to work harder! Serve more in church, attend more events, evangelise to others and share the gospel! Because that's what Jesus expects of His followers... right?

Actually, no. Jesus invites us to rest and enjoy a meal at His table. Living the resurrected life isn't about doing more things, but growing our relationship with Jesus by just sitting with Him. Rather than doing less work, our work becomes sanctified, fruitful, and filled with purpose.

Celebrating Apologetics Class Graduates!

On 27 April, 8 students completed the Apologetics class facilitated by sisters Catherine Leow, Rosie Ooi and Lim Li Mei. We will be recognising them during this Sunday's worship service for their attendance and completion of weekly quizzes.

We also recognise Johnny and Lily Toh for their participation in the class.

We pray that their faith will continue to grow from strength to strength, and that their lives will always bear witness to the truth of the gospel!
